

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

Six Original Shows Presented At Happy Wanderer Party

Over 150 men, women and children helped the Torrance Recreation Department celebrate the third birthday of the Happy Wanderer traveling puppet theater Aug. 3.

Eighteen boys and girls presented six puppet shows to the audience. Original puppet shows were: "The Circus or How the Monster Squashes Batman," "Building the San Diego Mission," "Batman Catches the Penguin," "The Lonely Princess," "Mr. Tolly and Milly Go to the Zoo," and "The Monster's Meal."

Special speakers and guests

Exhibits At Halfway House

Vara Grube, guest artist, has been invited to exhibit 16 paintings at the Halfway House restaurant, 3103 S. Pacific Coast Hwy., through the month of August.

The attractive display is of non-objectives and marines in water colors, casein and oil.

Weekend Trip

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Porter, 1026 Elm, spent last weekend with Mrs. Potter's sister, Mrs. Marie Wagner at home in Sierra Dawn near Hemet.

included Harry Van Bellehem, director of recreation, Miss Deanna Manning, senior recreation supervisor for parks and playgrounds, Lester Breitenfeldt, Herb Bonnett and Kathi O'Bitz, recreation supervisors for the northern, southern and central park and playground districts in Torrance.

Miss Manning spoke on the origin and growth of the traveling puppet theater. The Wanderer originated in the Montreal, Canada Parks Department. The program started in 1963 when it was dedicated at Torrance Park. Since then over 3,500 boys and girls have participated in this creative activity. Children, six years and older, make their own puppets, write their script, design and build scenery and then produce the completed show to their parents and friends.

Carol Bonnette and Dave

Ehrlich, Happy Wanderer leaders, will be taking the program to two more areas this summer—Lago Seco Park, 3920 - 235th St., Aug. 15, 16, and 17 and Calle Mayor Playground, 4800 Calle Mayor, Aug. 22, 23 and 24.

Twin Moms Will Discuss 'Discipline'

Regular monthly meeting of the South Bay Mothers of Twins Club will be held Monday evening, Aug. 15 at 7:30 p.m. at the Indian Village, Torrance. Mrs. Jerry Steinbrecher, president, will conduct the business meeting.

Mrs. Fred Casstevens, chairman, announces that the program for the evening will be a panel discussion. The topic under discussion will be, "Problems with Children and Ways of Discipline." Members serving on the panel are Mrs. Jack McLaughlin, Redondo Beach, discussing children ranging from babies to three years of age; Mrs. Jerry Griffith, Redondo Beach, pre-schoolers through first grade; Mrs. Cleve Kimmel, Torrance, early elementary school age; Mrs. Howard DeCastro, Torrance, teenagers. Each panelist will speak on her subject from three to five minutes with a question and answer period following.

The exchange table consisting of twin clothing and equipment will also be featured with Mrs. Samuel Plon, Torrance, chairman. Anyone desiring further information concerning the meeting or the club may contact Mrs. Layton Carr, Palos Verdes, membership chairman.

HAWAII HONEYMOON

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Harrison, pictured on the grounds at the Kaanapali Hotel, Lahaina, Maui, Hawaii, returned to their Torrance home at 3950 W. 226th St. on July 21. The couple was married in Los Angeles on July 10. Mrs. Harrison is the former Kathy Chester, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. N. T. Chester of Inglewood. Her husband, son of Mrs. Penelope Harrison, also of Inglewood, is sales manager for the Bayne-Williams Men's Shop in Pasadena. (Kaanapali Hotel Photo)

New Officers Installed By Auxiliary

New officers for Torrance American Little League Auxiliary were installed at a luncheon given by Mrs. Betty Coop, past president.

Mrs. Coop presented auxiliary gavel to incoming president, Mrs. Sue Perkins, who introduced her board for the 1967 season. They are Mmes. Evelyn Burkhalter, vice president; Jann Kamine, second vice president; Lois Bargar, third vice president; Mary Conway, secretary; Joyce Hilland, treasurer; and Maurine Rohweller, publicity.

At Arrowhead

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Long and two children, 23131 Galva Ave., Torrance, have returned from a week's vacation at Lake Arrowhead.

Rev. Paul C. Cox stood of silk organza over taffeta. Lace appliques enhanced the sweetheart neckline and the long sleeves. Her full illusion veil fell from a lace and pearl headpiece and her flowers were white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Howard Graves served as the matron of honor and Miss Toni Hamblin and Mrs. David Smith were bridesmaids.

The bridegroom's best man was Larry Day; Jerry Creager and Jim Blaic ushered.

The newlyweds were greeted by the 150 guests at a church reception before they left for a San Simeon honeymoon.

The new address is 20821 Amie Ave., Apt. 220, Torrance.

Mrs. Scott, a South High graduate, is employed as a secretary with Hughes Aircraft. Her husband, a graduate of Redondo High, is employed by Shell Chemical in Torrance.
